Happy Birthday, SFA

"Stated simply, the Stephen F. Austin State Teachers' College has an organization, a president and a faculty; it has a place to operate; it has equipment; and it is going to have a student body. Nacogdoches is ready to go."

More than seven decades have passed since those words appeared in the Sept. 11, 1923, issue of The Daily Sentinel. When students first came to Nacogdoches in 1923 to be a part of Stephen F. Austin State Teachers' College, swing was in style and gasoline prices had just risen to 16 cents a gallon. A.W. Birdwell was the president, and the faculty and staff roster included such familiar names as C.E. Ferguson, Ruth Mays and J.H. Wisely.

Now, 75 years and 81,000 graduates later, SFA still invites "students who are high-minded ladies and gentlemen" to learn under the pines. SFA offers more than 70 majors under 13 degrees to over 12,000 students each semester. Several different colleges, including applied arts and sciences, business, education, fine arts, forestry, liberal arts, and science and mathematics, are divided into many more departments.

"SFA, make no mistake, is a special place," President Dan Angel said at SFA's 75th birthday party. "SFA has come a long way."

SFA students of all ages celebrated 75 years of education Sept. 18, 1998, with music and cake. Elementary students from SFA's charter school sang "Happy Birthday" before Ruby Fluornoy, a 1932 SFA graduate, helped cut the cake. Political representatives sent letters of proclamation and spoke inspiring words to students and teachers.

From past to present, SFA has grown in size and scope from a small teachers' college to its current status as a major state university. And according to Texas Rep. Wayne Christian at the birthday party, "The future looks brighter and brighter."

"The Stephen F. Austin State Teachers' College is a full-grown organization. It will be seasoned with age and experience, but it today has a man's task and responsibility. . . It has its mission to fulfill. So far as it is given vision and wisdom, it will start right, for it has a long way to go. The machinery is set. . . Let every responsible person put his shoulder to the wheel."

This year, SFA sponsored its third annual Sweatequity Day, allowing volunteers to invest bodily energy in lieu of money in order to help keep campus beautiful.

Yes, it was hot and participants did sweat, but all for the cause of taking pride and ownership in SFA, according to Steve Westbrook, director of student activities.

"Sweatequity Day gives people a chance to do some of the things that they would like to see get done," Westbrook said.

At the third Sweatequity Day, held Saturday, September 12, volunteers worked on a variety of projects around the university to clean up and repair SFA despite obstacles presented by the muddy, rainy and generally miserable conditions. Completed projects came to a total of 61 and ranged from painting fire plugs and cleaning up cigarette butts to cleaning departmental offices and landscaping the arboretum.

There are several categories of projects ranging from general projects to group projects, submitted by students, residence halls and departments. Volunteers had the option of participating in general projects, like cleaning coliseum seats, or they could sign up with as a group to complete a specialized project. The OSA provided all of the equipment needed for general projects, and as much of the equipment needed for submitted group projects as it could.

Every residence hall submitted a project, as well as 102 student organizations and departments. The most represented academic department was secondary education and the most represented non-academic department was SFA Intercollegiate Athletics. Wisely Hall volunteered the most participants of all the residence halls and Chi Omega sorority was the most represented student organization. The number of registered participants totaled 1,183.

"I encourage people to get involved for several reasons," Westbrook said. "I think it's important for people to perform services for the community, and SFA is our community."

Activities will began at 8 a.m. in the William R. Johnson Coliseum with registration and concluded at 11 a.m. with a group picture at Homer Bryce Stadium. Participants were then treated to lunch and entertainment at the Ag Pond. The SFA original cast, the SFA Repertoire Dance Group and a band picked by the OSA performed during lunch.

All volunteers were also admitted free to the Lumberjack vs. Tarleton State football game starting at 7 p.m. that night. Sweatequity volunteers were recognized during the half-time program.

Sweatequity was a concept originally thought up by former U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney. The program allowed for people who could not afford the down-payment on a house to move into a home in need of work, repair it, and thereby build up equity through their sweat.

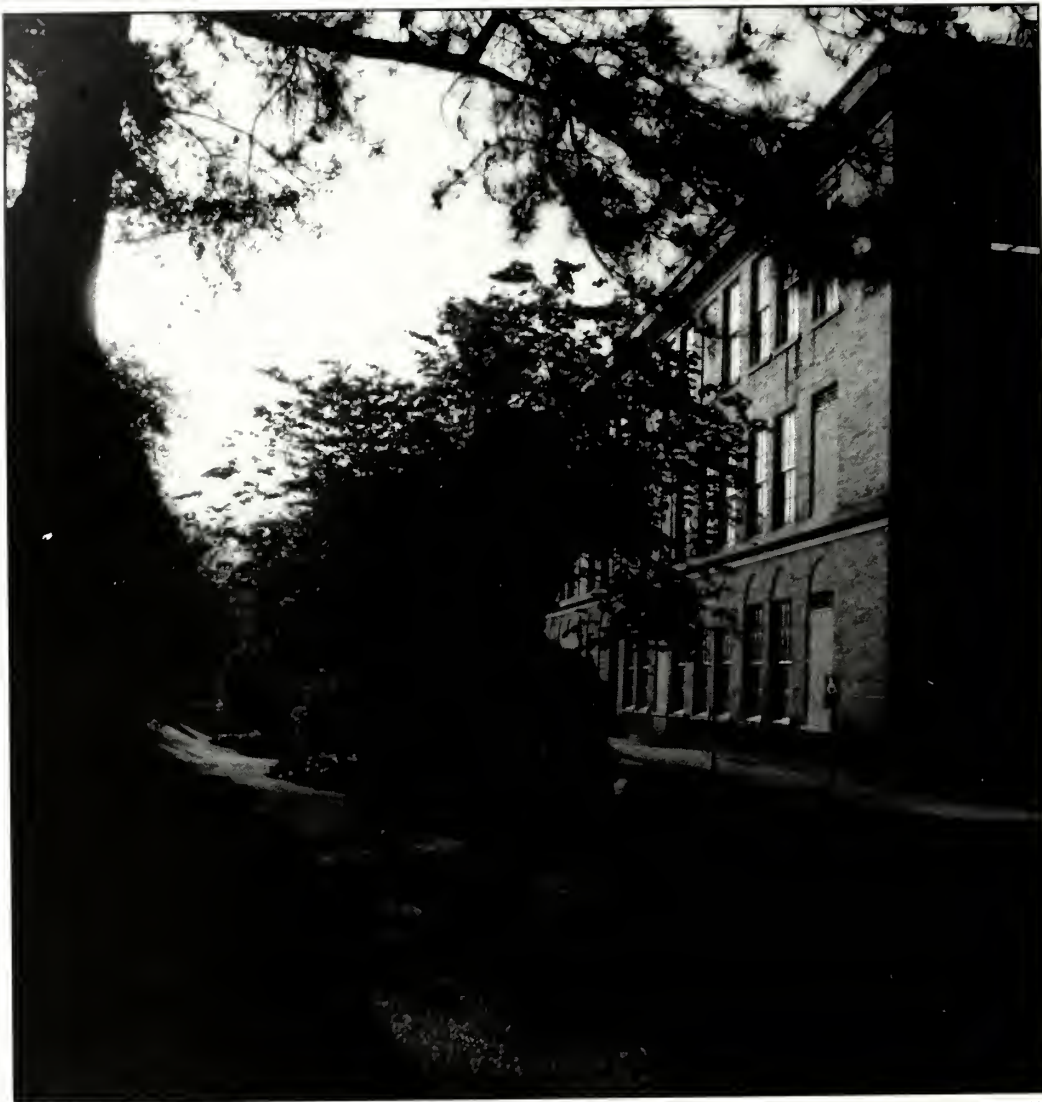

"I enjoyed helping out for the beautification of the campus, which I am very proud of," Johnny Russell, Sanger senior, said. "I invested $50 worth of sweat running rocks for the children's garden."

This is the third year SFA has practiced its own version of the Sweatequity plan. The first Sweatequity Day was in 1993 and close to 1,500 students participated. The second Sweatequity Day was in 1995.

"We've had some real good feedback on the program and not just because we were able to make the campus look and function better. People said they had fun and were able to meet people they wouldn't have otherwise met," said Westbrook.

SFA Buildings Adopt New Names

In the spirit of SFA's 75th anniversary, several of the Universities notable landmarks were renamed, and in some cases renovated, to honor longtime contributors and friends of the University.

Among the renamed buildings were the Jimmy W. Murphy Wellness Center, the Patricia and Adlai Mast Arboretum, the Tracie D. Pearman Alumni Center and the Ed and Gwen Cole Concert Hall.

The Jimmy W. Murphy Wellness Center was dedicated September 5 in honor of SFA Board of Regents member Jimmy Murphy. Murphy is chairman of the Share the Legacy Campaign and fund drive.

The dedication is a fitting honor to Murphy for several reasons, according to Wellness Center director Kevin Lykins. The dedication honors Murphy's time commitment to the Board of Regents, the money he has endowed to the University and the money he donated for the building of the Wellness Center.

"There was no other name that could go on this building," Lykins said.

Murphy was also responsible for the renovation and renaming of another building on campus, the Tracie D. Pearman Alumni Office. Pearman was an SFA graduate who was captain of the football team while he attended SFA. Pearman later served on the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

When the Alumni Association began to discuss the possibilities of expansion, Murphy and his family came forward with both the money, and the idea to name the center after Pearman.

Renovations to the existing Alumni Association began in February 1998 and concluded in October. Several hundred square feet of space was added to the building which also underwent a complete interrior facelift. A dedication ceremony was held on Friday, October 16 during homecoming.

The dedication of the Patricia and Adlai Mast Arboretum is a fitting tribute to a couple who has contributed far more than money, according to Arboretum director Dr. David Creech.

The Masts had been important in planning the azalea garden and promoting the Arboretum as a tourist resource and source of pride for SFA, Creech said.

"It takes the Arboretum from an unnamed resource to a recognized resource in the community," he said.

The naming and dedication of the Arboretum lends credibility and permanence to the facilities, as well as giving directors and staff a reassurance that the Arboretum will be a lasting contribution to the campus, Creech said.

"It guarantees perpetuity,"

Creech said.

The Masts promised $375,000 to the Arboretum, which turned 13 years old September 1.

The Ed and Gwen Cole Concert Hall was dedicated Friday, October 9, as part of a week-long celebration of the new music building. Construction of the concert hall began in early 1998 and concluded in September. The Cole's offer a four-year scholarship to two incoming freshman every year.

"This is something the faculty has thought appropriate for a long time," Anderson said. "They are prime benefactors of the music department. They've been wonderful friends and close to the students."

The opening celebration included several performances by SFA's concert ensembles, as well a performance by several notable SFA alumni. Guest artist Richard Stoltzman concluded the celebration with a concert on the 12.

...A Good Coach

Pride is something Tommy Newton does not take in stride.

Newton grew up in Houston where he was president of the Spring High School student council, which inevitably brought him to SFA in the summer of '88 for a student council camp. As he stood in foliage and splendor between Griffith Hall and the University Center one day that summer, he knew he had found the his course.

Once Newton became an orientation leader, he found with that experience, you get to know a lot of the present students, but you also have an added incentive of getting the respect of the incoming ones.

Newton was voted Mr. SFA when he graduated in 1994, and he was also given the honor of being chosen 1994 homecoming king.

After he graduated with a bachelor's in history and political science, he was hired by the University admissions office as a recruiter. For the first three years he spent 20 weeks out of each year traveling to high schools around the state. One of his goals for SFA is to get on-site recruiters in some larger areas so information on the University would not be so hard to come by for interested students.

He was recently promoted to counseling and career services coordinator of orientation and testing in which he presides over many testing procedures at SFA including the TOEFL, GMAT, LSAT and TASP. He also selects the orientation leaders for freshmen and transfer students' summer orientation.

During his college career, Newton was involved in Sigma Chi fraternity, the Chess Club, Organization for Latin American Students, Pi Sigma Alpha, Phi Alpha Theta, the Order of Omega, Talking Hands and intramural flag football. He now presides over Sigma Chi as the chapter advisor.

Newton says he loves school and education, which is one of the reasons he became a certified teacher. He is even considered becoming a principal some day in hopes of setting the right example to the up and coming.

"I'm always learning," he said. "Whether as a teacher or principal I want to interact with students and their interests somewhere. My biggest fear is not to see problems. I just want students to keep their eye on the ultimate goal; don't let your involvement take away from your business. I just want to be a good coach."

The Second Time Around:

The Ladyjack Soccer Team Wins Its Second Consecutive Conference Title

For the second consecutive season, the Ladyjack Soccer team won the Southland conference. The team's head coach, Rachel Skinner, described the second title in as many years as "Awesome!"

Before the season even started, the soccer team went to the SFA Challenge Course for a team building experience. "It was our first time to really laugh as a team, being afraid and having fun all in the same day," Skinner said. "That really kicked off the season. It was a great experience for us."

The season got off to a shaky start with the Ladyjacks losing their first game 2-0 to Stetson University. At the mid-point of the season, the Ladyjacks faced a tough Texas Christian University team. Despite a 4-0 loss to TCU, Skinner said, "I think it was a big turning point in the season. The girls came together more as a team." After the loss to TCU, the Ladyjack Soccer team went on to win its next eight games.

When the season came to an end, the Ladyjacks had won their second consecutive conference title despite losing the final game of the Southland Conference Tournament to the Southeastern Louisiana Lady Lions 1-0. The only goal in the game came at the 40-minute mark of the first half. The loss dropped the Ladyjacks to 10-7-3 for the season.

"[The team knew] every game that we played in the conference was going to be a battle, and all of the other teams had an opportunity to recruit, to get a year better," Skinner said. "The girls really played hard, and they knew what they had to do going in. It was a goal of theirs to repeat."

As for next year, the Southland Conference will be adding two more teams, which will allow the conference to send at least one team to the NCAA national tournament. "I think we'll always have an edge," said Skinner about SFA's position in the conference. "We're starting to build something here that's tradition." She also said to get good recruits, you must have a winning program, which is what the Ladyjacks have right now.

In mid-November '98, the All-Conference Selections for women's soccer were released, and five of SFA's players were named to the list. On the First-Team All-Conference selection list were Becky Cobb (15), League City senior, Christine Messner (13), Plano sophomore, and Stacey Moezygamba (14), Round Rock junior. The Second-Team All-Conference selection list included Elizabeth Evatt (01), Plano freshman, and Lisa Murdoek (20), Kingwood sophomore.

The question now is - when does a dynasty develop? Is it at the achievement of the much sought after three-peat? Only next year will tell.

By KJ Ritter
Sports Editor

The head coach of the Ladyjack Soccer team, Rachel Skinner began coaching at SFA in 1995. In just four seasons of play, she has taken the team from a record with just one win her first season to that of 10-7-3 in 1998. This past summer, Skinner played forward for a soccer team in Jackson, MS.

Four for the Future: SFA Volleyball's Freshman Class

Between the four new additions to the Ladyjack Volleyball team, they hold several state high school championships, 24 years of playing experience and tons of dedication from their families. Although successful in the past, winning hasn't been an option during their prep careers but a reality that has stemmed from years of work and dedication. The work paid off and has brought them to the successful Ladyjack Volleyball program - a program that has made winning a tradition.

Debbie Humphreys, head coach, welcomed four new freshmen, Jocelyn Shaw, Kristy Rhodes, Marissa Dorcheus and Melanie Taliaferro, to her squad and is reaping the benefits game after game.

Rhodes and Dorcheus come to the Pineywoods of East Texas from Houston Cypress Creek, where they enjoyed four years of a winning program. During their tenure in prep, the middle blocker and setter helped lead Cy-Creek to an impressive 110-11 over four years.

Taliaferro, a middle blocker from San Antonio, has also experienced success playing at the prep level. She helped guide her team to the post-season during her stay at San Antonio Churchill.

Shaw, an outside hitter from Albuquerque, N.M., has traveled a long distance to put on a purple and white uniform. Shaw helped her prep school, St. Pius X, to a 3A state championship her senior year.

The four freshmen have seen playing time this season against the tough conference teams, with Rhodes as the only first-year starter.

Rhodes' presence was immediate as she has recorded two 24-kill matches and has received all-tournament honors in past tournament play.

Dorcheus was also a key factor in a conference win this season against rival University of Texas at San Antonio. The setter, who is backup to Bianca Aranda, San Antonio senior, came into the match and recorded 30 assists for the match.

Shaw and Taliaferro also see court time, mostly defensively, and say they hope they can be a part of influencing the team's success.

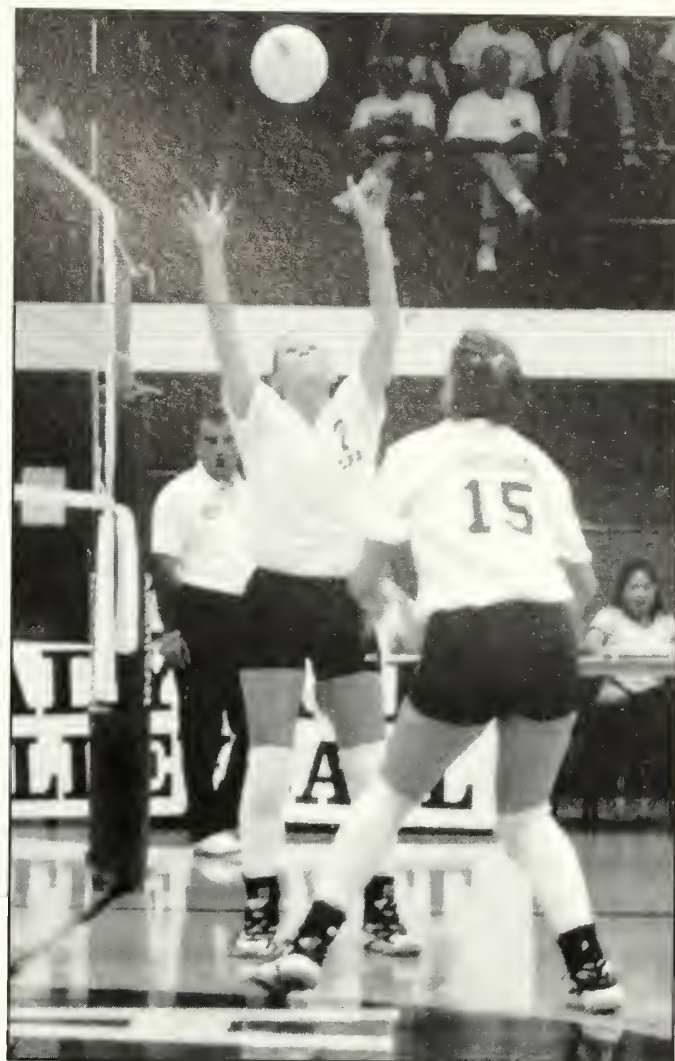

Coach Humphreys' new freshmen have proven to be in a class of their own, considering all four have already seen playing time. More importantly, however, they are a big part of why the program will see its traditional success continue into the future.

The End of an Era: SFA Says Goodbye to a Local Coaching Legend

A Lumberjack coaching era came to an end after the 1998 football season was in the books. Coach John Pearce, who compiled a 46-32-2 record with the Lumberjacks over 7 years, did not get his contract renewed after the 1998 season.

Coach Pearce, who began coaching for SFA in 1991 and had a two win season his first year, led the Lumberjacks to five straight winning seasons from 1993-1997. He also led the team to two playoff berths in 1993 and 1995 and five straight years of national rankings in Division I-AA.

Pearce, who was two wins away from becoming the winningest football coach in SFA's history, did things with the Lumberjack football team that most college coaches don't do in their entire career. It is certain that he will be missed by many of SFA's loyal fans and supporters.

Ultimate Frisbee: One of the World's Oldest Inventions Begins a New Era at SFA

Several of SFA's already time-honored sports have joined company with an unlikely companion: the Frisbee.

Ultimate Frisbee, a sport new to SFA but well-established at other schools, now has a team of its own here, a team willing to put in the sweat and hours necessary for "going ho," or horizontal, as Ultimate buffs call soaring through the air in search of that elusive flying disc.

"It combines elements of soccer, basketball and football with a Frisbee," Jody Christopher, Dallas junior and team member, said. "It's an exciting sport because the Frisbee can travel 100 yards in five seconds. It's the fastest moving sport."

To play the game, each team tries to score by throwing the Frisbee into an end zone, where a waiting team member must catch the disc for the point. The ball can move down the field only in the air; team members are not allowed to run with the Frisbee.

SFA's team, named Genetic Drift for the predominance of biology majors on the team, is in its first year. If it proves to represent the University well, it will later be able to request funding assistance. Currently, team members pay for equipment and tournament fees out of their own pockets, Christopher said.

Although some teams are strictly men or women, Christopher said she has enjoyed this year's coed team partially because playing coed teaches women to be more aggressive in overcoming height and strength differences. Games with just men tend to be more fast-paced and spontaneous, while women-only games are usually more strategy-oriented, she said.

However, team captain and math graduate student Joe Robinson said while coed playing is more relaxing, one of his goals for the year is to be able to have enough players for a separate men's and women' team.

The benefits of team play are varied, according to Christopher. Excellent physical fitness is a definite plus.

"It puts your body in great shape," she said. "It's great exercise."

Also, the game teaches sportsmanship because there are no referees at any level of Ultimate Frisbee, Robinson said.

"We don't really keep score," Christopher said. "The most important thing is the spirit of the game."

Several team members will graduate this year, but the team will go on, according to Christopher. A core of youngsters that "have it in their blood" will ensure the team's survival. Just the same, however, new members are always made to feel at home.

"Everyone is welcome," Christopher said. "It's a lot easier to pick up than you think."

"It's fun, good exercise and it teaches a few life lessons along the way," Robinson said.

MILES MCCALL: VICE PRESIDENT FOR ALUMNI AFFAIRS

As the new vice president for alumni affairs, Dr. Miles McCall has a big job — and big plans to fill it.

McCall said he was hired to move the Alumni Association forward in technology, automation and marketing to achieve a very special goal.

"The No. 1 goal is to represent the 80,000 alumni of SFA," McCall said.

In order to best represent SFA's alumni, McCall is working hard to establish chartered alumni chapters in cities across the state.

According to McCall, SFA has done a tremendous educational job for a small school, and he plans to see SFA take its rightful place among the rectangle of alumni-supported schools such as Texas Tech, Texas A&M and the University of Texas.

"SFA graduates are just as loyal as any others," McCall said. "They just don't have the vehicle to express their desires."

For example, Texas Tech and Texas A&M are both located in small towns, and yet they have incredibly active, supportive alumni. The key is that their alumni got tired of people devaluing their educational experience, McCall said. By proudly supporting their alma mater, SFA alumni can propel SFA into the same level of recognition.

"We have a chance to be an East Texas part of that quartet of institutions," McCall said. "People don't think of us as being equal to Tech and A&M, but I think they should."

More corporate sponsors will also help SFA achieve greater prominence and recognition," McCall said.

"In the next five years, SFA has great opportunities," McCall said.

McCall said his classroom experiences have taught him a very important lesson: "No matter what aspect of the University you're involved in, the most important thing is the student."

In addition to a growing student population, McCall predicted an increasing public awareness of SFA's worth.

Two things work in SFA's favor to improve the public's perception of the University, he said. First, SFA offers one of the few truly residential experiences left in these times of big-city and commuter colleges.

"You don't realize it when you're here, but it's a special place," McCall said.

The other advantage SFA holds is the opportunity to learn from the other first-rate universities in Texas. The other nationally known schools can serve as role models and mentors for SFA as it grows.

As students graduate, McCall's objective is to ensure that every graduate has the chance to stay attached to college experiences through the Alumni Association.

"It's really important that we give everyone as many opportunities to attach as possible," he said. "It's like mining for gold. It's out there, and it's incredibly valuable."

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The SFA Alumni Association exists to promote the welfare and spirit of SFA by enlisting alumni to become members of the organization and encouraging their support of the association's activities for raising funds for the SFA Scholarship Fund.

The SFA Alumni Association and foundation scholarship endowments total more than $11 million. About 500 students at the university were aided by more than $600,000 in alumni scholarships this year.

The SFA Alumni Association sponsors the university's Homecoming celebration, during which more than $165,000 was raised from activities such as the Duck Dash, silent auction, televised auction, benefit raffle and golf tournament. The organization is governed by the officers and directors of the association and is headed by Dr. Miles McCall, vice president for alumni affairs. McCall took the helm of the SFA Alumni Association after Bob Sitton stepped down after 26 years as executive director. Sitton remains with the organization as its director of public relations.

A major highlight of the SFA Alumni Association this year is the opening of the newly renovated Tracie D. Pearman Alumni Center. The Alumni Center was made possible by contributions of SFA Regent Jimmy W. Murphy; Ara Pearman, mother of Tracie; and Sally Mertz, Tracie's aunt.

Other highlights include the new alumni association website (www.sfaalumni.com) and the initiation of Charter Chapters.

All SFA students are encouraged to become members of the SFA Alumni Association. Joining the SFA Alumni Association is the best way to keep in touch with the activities and events happening at SFA. You'll discover that being a member of the association is rewarding, valuable and most of all, fun.

Simply pick up the phone and call us at 1-800-765-1534 or 409-468-3407 or email us at alumni@sfaalumni.com.

The SFA Rodeo Club, one of the largest organizations on campus, strives to bring together students with a common interest in rodeo, the “cowboy” lifestyle, and the heritage of the American West. Since 1991 it has maintained membership of at least 140 people.

As a part of the Rodeo Club, the Rodeo Team competes in the Southern Region of the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association. A member of the team is eligible for travel reimbursement, practice facilities, stock, coaches, and limited scholarship. To be eligible for these benefits, a person must be active in the club and attend team practices as spelled out in the club constitution.

The Rodeo Club is active in the community and on campus. Members have a shoe-shine booth at Jitterbugs to supplement the University’s travel allocation, work at local rodeo events such as the “Bull Bash” and the Nacogdoches Jaycee’s PRCA Rodeo, and have adopted a portion of Loop 224 as a part of Texas Adopt-a-Highway program. They host their own annual NIRA sanctioned rodeo, and the club trip is to McNeese State University’s rodeo in Lake Charles, La. Plans for an intramural rodeo and sports tournament are under consideration, and the club recently began offering a weekly Bible study for interested members.

A unique facet of the club is the existence of its own Rodeo Club Alumni Association, the only such club at SFA. The two clubs work together to sponsor the Alumni Rodeo as a benefit for the scholarship fund. These efforts have raised more than $45,000 in the last five years.

A person does not have to compete in rodeo to be a member of the club. In fact, about 75 percent of the club is not active in the NIRA.

which way I ought to walk from here?

"That depends a good deal on where you want to get to," said the Cat.

"I don't much care where," said Alice.

"Then it doesn't matter which way you walk," said the Cat.

"—so long as I get somewhere," Alice added as an explanation.

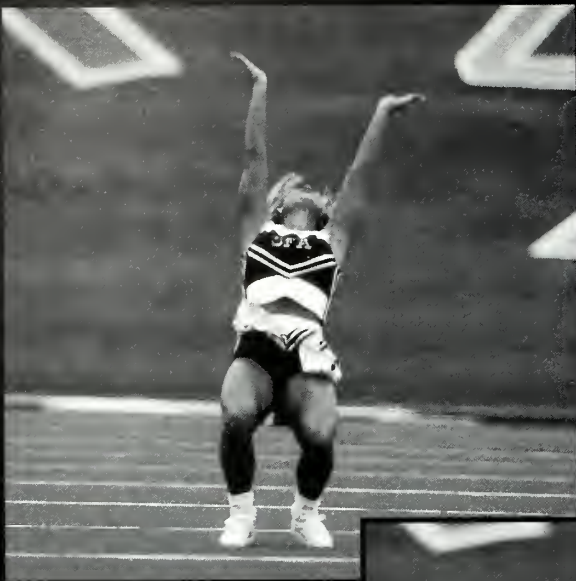

"Oh, you're sure to do that," said the Cat, "if you only walk long enough."

Tarred and Feathered

On Friday, Oct. 23, the statue of Stephen F. Austin in front of Steen Library was smeared with a sticky substance and feathered.

Representatives at the physical plant estimated the cost of the subsequent clean-up at $1,500.

In 1998, $1,500 can buy a lot of things. The following are just some examples:

• 187 pizzas • 30 textbooks • 75 concert tickets • tuition and textbooks for one semester at SFA • off-campus rent for 3 months • 1,667 gallons of gas • 30 pair of blue jeans • 50 SFA sweatshirts • a very used car • a generous scholarship.

University police officers have not been able to identify any suspects in the crime, nor have they been able to determine motivation. It is possible the people who defaced the statue are not even students.

While whoever feathered the statue was probably just looking for a laugh, vandalizing school property to the tune of $1,500 is not very funny. If the culprits are students, maybe they thought paying tuition at SFA entitles them to abuse statues that are not theirs. What it actually entitles them to is the responsibility to respect their education. If the culprits are not students, they vandalized a symbol of one of the best things ever to happen to Nacogdoches.

SFA is a fun place; it is completely possible to have a good time without being destructive with someone else's belongings. SFA is a safe place; vandalism has no place here. SFA is a beautiful place; feathered statues do not belong. SFA is a proud, spirited school: people who vandalize statues do not belong either.

Mr. and Miss SFA

Two Seniors Named as Mr. and Miss SFA

---

Office of Public Affairs

The Mr. and Miss SFA awards are endowed through the SFA Alumni Association in memory of Stan Mckewen, a 1934 graduate and Arnodean Colvin, a 1943 and 1972 graduate. Two outstanding students are selected based on their scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and co-curricular activities, citizenship and service and loyalty to the university. Selections are made by a joint committee of faculty, staff and students. This year's recipients are Aaron Aiza and Jennifer Renfro.

Aiza, a Nacogdoches High School graduate, is majoring in biology and psychology. Aiza is the secretary and chairman of committees for Alpha Tau Omega and the recipient of the fraternity's Robert Poland Scholarship. Aiza is a supervising orientation leader and is a student assistant for the SFA 101 course.

Jennifer Renfro, a graduate of Lindale High School, is majoring in journalism with a marketing minor. Renfro is president of the SFA chapter of the American Marketing Association and an executive board member and events coordinator for the Student Foundation Association. She is also the assistant director of Millard's Crossing. She is the recipient of the George Bokorney Journalism Scholarship, the James and Wilma Fuller Public Relations Scholarship and the Wal-Mart Leadership Scholarship.

Editor's Note

Drum roll, please. Here it is the 1999 Stone Fort Yearbook. Well, as the entire staff would have to admit, this semester has been very interesting. The whole staff overcame obstacles, hardships, letdowns and little mishaps to produce a well organized, realistic and interesting view of Stephen F. Austin State University.

Now, for my list of thank you's... Thank you to Pat and Judy for giving me such a great opportunity as yearbook editor, for having so much confidence in me and for encouraging me every step of the way. Thanks so much Mrs. Buckeye and The Official Casa Ole Woman!

I would also like to thank my much deserving editors Tamera, KJ, Donica, and PJ for their hard work. All of your time and effort contributed to another great volume of the Stone Fort Yearbook.

I would like to thank all of the photographers for helping to bring this book to life with your pictures that captured the true essence of the SFA world in which we are temporarily living.

I'd also like to thank all the contributing writers for the stories behind the picture. Great job, everyone!

I feel that this yearbook is a collection of 75th birthday events, highlights of the entire year, a review of accomplishments and achievements of individuals and a big picture of what SFA was like this year. This yearbook, down the road a ways, is something that will trigger memories of Stephen F. Austin State University in 1999.
